Regulations of the Idea Puzzle Prize 2022

The Idea Puzzle Prize 2022 is ruled by the following clauses:

1. Idea Puzzle offers a prize to promote the scientific rigour and socio-economic relevance of doctoral research.
2. The prize consists of an economic compensation of 1000 euros to the author of the best doctoral research design created with the Idea Puzzle software in a licensed doctoral school.
3. The prize will be deposited in a bank account indicated by the prize winner.
4. Each candidate for the prize must create a research design at www.ideapuzzle.com, save it in the computer as PDF, and send it to prize@ideapuzzle.com until the 30th of June 2022 at 23:59 (WET), together with a proof of registration in a doctoral programme, a letter of recommendation from the supervisor, and a phone number.
5. The research design must be original, written in English, and contain bibliographic references.
6. The prize will be granted by taking into account the following evaluation criteria: scientific rigour, social relevance, and economic relevance.
7. The evaluation of the research design will not take into account the respective number of words nor author's self-evaluation.
8. The candidate research designs will be evaluated by Ricardo Morais, Director of Idea Puzzle, taking into account the letters of recommendation from the respective supervisors.
9. The title, author, supervisor, doctoral programme, and university of the prize-winning research design will be announced on the 31st of August 2022 at 12:00 (WET) on the page 'Idea Puzzle Prize' at www.ideapuzzle.com.
10. On the 17th of November 2022 (World Philosophy Day) at 12:00 (WET), the prize-winning author will take a picture with Ricardo Morais through Zoom for further media dissemination.
11. On the World Philosophy Day of the following year, the PDF of the prize-winning research design will be publicly available on the page 'Idea Puzzle Prize' at www.ideapuzzle.com as a disciplinary example.
12. Idea Puzzle reserves the right to interpret the present regulations.
